

VIRGIN MARY

Holly

No Bible reference is quoted here because this sculpture was meant to honor Mary, the Mother of Jesus, in a more modern pose. This was carved from a branch of a holly tree and the width of the sculptured piece is the actual width of the limb. The wood is very close-grained and a beautiful milk-white color.