

WISDOM OF SOLOMON

Walnut

I KINGS 3:22, 25

*“No! The living child is mine, yours is the dead one!”
Then King Solomon gave this order:
Cut the living child in two and give half to one and half to the other.”*

This piece offered three challenges: the face of a scheming woman, the faces of a pleading woman and a crying baby. I liked the idea of a crying baby pushing away from the woman who was not his real mother. The other touch I liked, although it may not be visible in the picture, was the sword, symbolizing the wisdom of Solomon.
